

Menschheit

Is an event that invites you to become a part of the moment, music and art.

Artist, Daniel Eisenhut, will spontaneously and randomly portrait the audience (maybe you). This will be inspired by the performance of pianist Yulia Miloslavskaya.

Composed: Audience, painting and music create the space where the present can be experienced.

After a short break, you are invited to join an open dialogue about art, the now and what lies between them.
